

SRA Accounts Rules update

8.00- 11.30am Wednesday 7 November

The Village Hotel | Maidstone

The Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA) has announced the new Accounts Rules affecting law firms will come into effect from 25 November.

We are hosting a breakfast seminar to support and advise law firms on the implications and what the new rules mean to them.

What's on the agenda....

- The new framework and compliance structure along with the new focus on risk
- Who is bound by the new rules
- Client monies and client account
- The payment of interest to clients under the new rules
- The importance of systems and controls
- Preparation of client bank reconciliations
- Dealings with other money belonging to clients or third parties
- The requirement to obtain an Accountants Report
- Retention and storage of records
- Important omissions from the new rules
- What your firm should do now

Speaker

Robert Blech

Robert is a qualified accountant who has a law degree and legal background. Robert acts for a number of solicitors and law firms preparing both their financial statements and Accountants Report as required by the SRA. Robert specialises in disciplinary and regulatory matters of law firms and has represented practices in a high profile SRA investigations.

He is an SRA Specialist Director at MHA Macintyre Hudson in London.

Timings:

08.00: Breakfast and networking
08.30: Presentation
11.00: Q&A and networking
11.30: Event finish

Venue:

The Village Hotel, Castle View, Sandling Road,
Maidstone ME14 3AQ

Register:

To book your place at this FREE event please email kentevents@mhlp.co.uk and let us know if you have any specific dietary requirements.

Please feel free to forward this invitation to any of your colleagues you think may be interested in attending