

WORKPLACE DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION WEBINAR

The primary objective of this webinar is to raise awareness around the need for Diversity and Inclusion, the key legislation relating to D & I and its benefits to an organisation. This webinar is for:

- Managing and Senior Partners
- Anyone in charge of HR, Personnel and Learning and Development
- Anyone interested in creating a more diverse and inclusive workforce

Attendees will leave the webinar with a better understanding of:

- Why the need for Diversity and Inclusion
- An overview of the legal framework
- The real cost to the organisation of a non-inclusive workforce
- The benefits of having a truly inclusive workforce
- Meaning of unconscious bias and how to recognise it
- The first steps to creating the culture change for an inclusive and engaged workforce

The webinar facilitator is Trainer, Speaker and Coach Mary Eniolu, founder and owner of Can Do Academy, a professional training and coaching company dedicated to helping businesses and organisations achieve peak performance and profits through people development and creating productive cultures that make people love coming to work and achieving great results together.

Mary has over 30 years of legal experience, including over 15 years running her own Lexcel accredited law firm in Maidstone and brings her years of legal and lived experiences to her training. Mary is passionate about Diversity and Inclusion because she believes that for us to continue to innovate and grow and expand, we need diversity of thought, and diversity of thought can only truly come from a diversity of representation and even more so, a culture of inclusion.

Mary has facilitated Diversity and Inclusion sessions for several organisations including major banks like NatWest.
